Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Workbook. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book shows you the Personal History project that students at Highland Park High School use to make history come alive. The aim is to make the high school experience personal to the student. Build the curriculum around the interests of each student. The Personal Learning Plan for each student should be unique. I ve spent at least ten hours a year talking by phone with Enrique Gonzalez since I met him at Frida Kahlo High School in Los Angeles on October 24, 2009. I met students who spoke clearly and confidently about where they hoped to go (university, music, armed services, private business). I saw then that I would need a workbook to help guide me and my students to follow the path where these confident students were walking. Enrique has freely shared his techniques with me, which is why he is the lead author of this collection of worksheets. The parts that follow Part One are initiatives that some students might want to pursue after completing their Personal History Workbook. Part 2 is the Global Skills or seven survival skills that Harvard professor Tony Wagner has written and spoken about. Students are encouraged to spend some time with seven survival skills Tony Wagner (go ahead, do the search) and then look at these topics: The Twelve Global Skills Can we take the initiative? Can we begin something? Can we handle our automatic negative thoughts ? Can we build our resilience ? Cab we build a global network? Are we ready to work in the Global Economy? Part 3 I highly recommend Dan Pink s website and I hope these words will drive your attention toward...
