Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Students Outline for the History of the United States This outline has its origin in the demands of the author s own classes, the growing interest in the better teaching of history, the many requests from teachers for a work that will enable them to carry on the source or library method without a larger expenditure of time in preparation than they are able to give, and in the need of a work to enable academies, high schools, and normal schools to meet the requirements of the conference of American Colleges which recommended as the minimum of American History for college entrance: At least one year s work by the library method with one or more topics by the source method. It is believed that this outline meets, to a fuller degree than any other work now published, the recommendations of the Committee of Ten which say: The course that best prepares for college entrance is the course that best prepares for actual life, That the method of study by topics be strongly recommended as tending to stimulate pupils and to encourage independence of judgment. That in all practical ways an effort should be made to teach the pupils in the latter years to discriminate between the authorities, especially between original sources and secondary writers. That no formal instruction in political economy be given in the secondary schools but that, in connection particularly with United States history, instruction be given in economic topics. That the teaching of history should be intimately connected with the teaching of English; first, by using historical works or extracts for reading; second, by writing English compositions from subjects drawn from...
