When writing advertisers please mention American Municipalltie CLIPPINGS FROM RATE RESEARCH The Wisconsin Utility Commission in discussing a fair basis of charge for changing from direct current equipment to alternating, says: It would appear that to be fair to both interests, the consumer should pay for the depreciation of his current installation and the utility for that part that is still useful but for which the consumer is unable to realize, plus the cost of making the change. We find that the practice heretofore followed by the respondent with respect to the replacement of direct current consumerss equipment by alternating current equipment is unreasonable, and that a greater portion of the expense of such changes should be borne by the utility. We regard the following method as a reasonable one upon which to apportion the cost of making changes when the respondent desires to discontinue the direct current service: 1. Determine the...
