C., Delivered in Said Church on Sabbath, Jan, 19, 1862 Jesus saith unto her, I am the Resurrection, and the Life. He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. - (John xi., 25, 26.) These words are taken from that beautiful history of the Resurrection of Lazarus, which dropped, like the dew of the morning from the flowers of spring, softly, and full of sympathy, from the pen of John, the one of all the Twelve the quickest to feel the sorrows of others. He was the readiest, also, to appreciate the human and the Divine in the love of the Son of God, into whose depths he penetrated the farthest, but whose abysses he did not pretend to fathom. It is a lovely picture of domestic peace he spreads before us. Behold how good and pleasant it is for...
