By Dr Linda Sapadin, Jack Maguire

She has identified six types of procrastinators -- perfectionists, dreamers, worriers, defiers, crisismakers, and overdoers -- and for each has developed a specific program designed to help students unlearn self-destructive behavior and realize their full academic potential. Through quizzes and case studies, she shows students how to: -- identify and change bad work patterns -- prioritize effectively -- develop effective study habits -- cope with newfound freedom and responsibility. Beat Procrastination and Make the Grade will show students how to get more done faster and better, with time left over to enjoy their school experience. Teachers, parents, counselors, and anyone who knows or works with students will find this book to be an essential tool. Beat Procrastination should be required reading on...

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You won't feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
