Not illustrated. 1921 Excerpt: .believe that such a study will make the largest contribution to agricultural education that has yet been made. At the Chicago meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Agricultural Teaching, in 1919. the following resolution relating to this topic was adopted: Resolved, That in case there are additional grants of Federal funds to the agricultural experiment stations, it is the belief of this association that provision should be made for research in agricultural education, agricultural economics, home economics, and such other subjects as pertain to the rural community. - AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION. The following statement shows in a general way the scope and principal objectives of the agricultural extension program of the United States Department of Agriculture in cooperation with the colleges of agriculture, with particular reference to the activities of the past two years: At the beginning of the fiscal year 1918-19, the emergency appropriations, providing funds to increase production, were in force; they amounted to $6,400,000 for the employment of county agents, and boys and girls club leaders. However, in 1919-20 these appropriations were discontinued, and in lieu thereof Congress appropriated $1,500,000 to be used under the same conditions as the funds provided under the Smith-Lever Act. Therefore, the first problem that presented itself to the extension workers in 1919-20 was that of increasing funds from sources within the State. In 1918-19, the total funds from within the State amounted to slightly over $5,000.000, which was increased to nearly $8,500,000 in 1919-30, while...
