Brenda Kittles has just left her rookie job with Homeland Security for Daytona Beach, Florida, to head up computer security for Stone and Associates, a prestigious architectural firm that recently won a coveted contract for an oceanfront multiplex development. S and As long-awaited groundbreaking ceremony for the development abruptly ends when a group of demonstrators interrupt the festivities and a storage shed explodes. A short time later, S and As employees learn that a body has been discovered behind a dumpster near their building. S and As President, Russell Stone, is a tough businessman still reeling from his wives murder a few months earlier. In a meeting with firm partner Catherine Hainsworth, he reveals his plans to retire and hand her the reigns of his firm. Destined to be a force in the business world, Catherine immediately seizes an opportunity to develop a cybercaf franchise. The turmoil reaches a fevered pitch when a computer hacker obsessed with the game of chess succeeds in gaining access to the firms network. Now Brenda Kittles must determine the hackers identity, his intentions, and why millions of dollars are being deposited into the corporate bank account earmarked for the multiplexall before the hacker finishes his dirty deeds.
